DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-31, drawn to a positive electrode for a lithium-sulfur battery comprising a current collector comprising pores and a lithium-sulfur battery using the same, classified in class 429, subclass 235.
 - II. Claims 32-41, drawn to a method of manufacturing a positive electrode for a lithium-sulfur battery, classified in class 29, subclass 2.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions of Group I and Group II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the positive electrode can be made by producing a current collector having pores by kneading a mixture of carbonyl nickel powder and a binder and sintering the mixture to produce a current collector having pores as evidenced by U.S. Pat. No. 6,548,210 B1 instead of using the method of coating a resin foam or a nonwoven fabric to produce a current collector having pores as recited in the claims of the present application.

Art Unit: 1745

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

First category of species to be elected if the invention of Group I is elected:

A single species is to be elected for the sulfur-based active material selected from the group consisting of elemental sulfur, solid Li_2S_n ($n \geq 1$), a catholyte in which Li_2S_n ($n \geq 1$) dissolves, an organosulfur compound, and a carbon-sulfur polymer.

Second category of species to be elected if the invention of Group I is elected:

A single species is to be elected for the negative active material selected from the group consisting of a material which can reversibly intercalate/deintercalate lithium ions, a material which can reversibly reform a chemical compound with lithium, a lithium metal, and a lithium-containing alloy.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 1 is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

5. A telephone call was made to James McEwen on August 28, 2003 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made. Mr. McEwen requested a written restriction.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Art Unit: 1745

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
